Join us for an engaging day of hospitality & horticultural education within our light-hearted “Muddy Boots!” theme

Our agenda will include:

Flower & Design Show: Spring specimens and designs

Silent Auction: Each Horticultural Society is asked to contribute one item

Photography Competition: 12 categories

Club Competition: Bookmarks and Group Floral Design

Vendors: Bring extra cash to buy something special

Luncheon & Snacks: Delicious local food

Key Note Speakers: Two fascinating presentations you won't want to miss!

Your Garden Wakes Up For Spring: Martin Galloway, (biologist, teacher, lecturer, author, nursery grower, TV host and horticultural expert) will present a colourful slide show and talk about nature's emergence from winter dormancy. We will learn how wonderfully our flora and fauna come alive in Spring, in our gardens and in wild country spaces.

Sacred Plants – Spiritual and Medicinal Uses: We will examine and experience how the Anishinaabe people use their sacred plants in ceremony and medicine. Penny Beaudrow (Herbal Educator and Registered Herbalist) will present the medicinal uses of these amazing plants. Lauri Hoeg (Anishnaabe qwe and member of the Chippewas of Georgina Island First Nation) will share the ceremony and traditional teachings of these sacred plants.

Pre-registration Required Price: $30.00
